Suspect Arrested After Investigation into Recent Car Break-Ins

Over the past several weeks the Lebanon Police Department received several theft reports from unlocked vehicles.

After extensive investigation, a suspect was identified and on September 14, 2011, the Lebanon Police Department arrested:

James Lussier, age 19, of Lebanon

Lussier has been charged with receiving stolen property (a firearm taken from one of the vehicles) which is a class B felony. He is also charged with two counts of Breach of Bail, as he is currently out on bail on a separate charge. Lussier is being held on $2,500 cash bail at the Grafton County House of Corrections. He is scheduled to be arraigned today in the Haverhill District Court.

The investigation remains open and is ongoing.
